1. Explain why bagging, random forests, and boosting do not overfit your data even though you are learning many more models than traditional approaches?

2. Describe a context where bagging would be a better approach than boosting. Explain why.